

Is There An Absolute Truth?

What the World Says About Truth

The world around us is making a couple of claims about the nature of truth.

Truth Does Not _____

Truth Cannot Be _____

How Do We Know If Something Is True?

Knowledge is usually described in the following way:

Knowledge = _____

Defining "Belief"

Defining "True"

The Pragmatic Theory of Truth: _____

The Empiricist Theory of Truth: _____

The Emotivist Theory of Truth: _____

The Correspondence Theory of Truth: _____

Defining "Properly Justified"

Evidential Sufficiency: _____

*Only accept a new belief if the evidence to support its truth _____
the evidence that exists to support the prior belief.*

The Biblical Truth About Truth

Let's take a look at a few examples from the scripture:

John 17:15-19

Key Words: _____

2 Timothy 4:2-5

Key Words: _____

3 John 1-4

Key Words: _____

For more information, visit www.PleaseConvinceMe.com

Is There An Absolute Truth?

What the World Says About Truth

The world around us is making a couple of claims about the nature of truth.

Truth Does Not _____

Truth Cannot Be _____

How Do We Know If Something Is True?

Knowledge is usually described in the following way:

Knowledge = _____

Defining "Belief"

Defining "True"

The Pragmatic Theory of Truth: _____

The Empiricist Theory of Truth: _____

The Emotivist Theory of Truth: _____

The Correspondence Theory of Truth: _____

Defining "Properly Justified"

Evidential Sufficiency: _____

*Only accept a new belief if the evidence to support its truth _____
the evidence that exists to support the prior belief.*

The Biblical Truth About Truth

Let's take a look at a few examples from the scripture:

John 17:15-19

Key Words: _____

2 Timothy 4:2-5

Key Words: _____

3 John 1-4

Key Words: _____

For more information, visit www.PleaseConvinceMe.com